Among common goals addressed by the three organizations are the formation of a chapter of the Gamma Sigma Alpha National Honor Society for fraternity and sorority members. The groups also planned technology initiatives, which would enable chapters to post online information and forms. "Sexpert" lectures on safe sex

By Emily Wolfe

"Super-expert" Susan Bright delighted a large audience that night with a frank and funny talk on just about everything there is to know about sex.

Bright, a nationally recognized "sexpert," author, and creator of the "Sexpert" series, appeared to widespread applause after presentations by the College's Student Health Service, the Pennsylvania Massage Therapy Institute, and the Pennsylvania Women's Center. A large, enthusiastic crowd who arrived early then stayed late to hear Bright's entertaining and informative talk on safe sex.

Bright began her career as a feminist sexual educator and found a down-to-earth manner of describing topics that are abhorrent to most. Bright delivered the keynote speech at a national conference last spring and now she has settled into the role of sex researcher and educator.

Bright said that the rape crisis is a feminist; she thought she'd fit in. "I never had a head, "it's a big snooze.""

As Bright added, "If something isn't done so often." Bright pointed out, "if something doesn't have "explosive sex" all the time."

Greeks offer resolutions for 21st Century

"Our report sets the pace for Greek life in the country," Goettner said.

"We want to help people to understand what we do and who we are." Jessica Schreck, Panhellenic President.

Scheck explained that the incorporators and the incorporation office have invested an equal amount of their time and resources to make the incorporation a success. The report represents a reflection of the University's goals. Pres. and College senior Josh Holt said his organization focuses mainly on the Creek Safe Houses plan, a safety program which will give GreekNet a critical role in our awareness campaigns. Our report sets the pace for Creek Safe Houses, a plan which will be implemented in September.

The report describes an implementation plan that goes on in our houses. "We want to help people to understand what we do and who we are," said Holt. "This includes showing the accounts of education and experience that go on in our houses, and while Panhellenic and IFC outline specific plans for the future, we also provide seed money for pilot programs that show potential for becoming ongoing, self-supporting programs.

The council is inclined to give favorable consideration to projects that:

- effect a broad segment of the University population;
- offer the community to a higher awareness of women's issues;
- provide seed money for pilot programs that show potential for becoming ongoing, self-supporting programs.

Applications may be obtained from the office of the Trustees' Council of Penn Women, 3533 Locust Walk, Philadelphia, PA 19104. Applications must be submitted by February 1, 1997. Awards will be announced in April and grants will be awarded after July 1.

The Trustees' Council of Penn Women Grant Program

The Trustees' Council of Penn Women announces the establishment of a grant program available to members of the University community. The grants, in amounts from $1,000.00 to $5,000.00, will be made pursuant to an application and approval process.

The grant program is potentially available to an individual who, or organization which:

- promotes women's issues;
- promotes the quality of undergraduate and graduate life for women;
- promotes the institutional advancement of women;
- promotes the physical, emotional, and psychological well-being of women.

Applications may be obtained from the office of the Trustees' Council of Penn Women, 3533 Locust Walk, Philadelphia, PA 19104. Applications must be submitted by February 1, 1997. Awards will be announced in April and grants will be awarded after July 1.

Not all Santa's helpers have pointed ears and funny little boots.

We're looking to hire 3 or 4 of the best from this year's class...

Are you good enough to be one of them?

MBI, Inc. needs three or four of the top individuals from this year's graduating class. We offer an unusual management opportunity to someone interested in entering the demanding challenges of a high-reward position in a dynamic and highly successful enterprise in a fast-paced, expanding and competitive industry.

The Opportunity:

We're looking for smart, hardworking individuals who can help run a part of our business. MBI is committed to the internal development of managerial talent and our growth provides for unusual advancement opportunities for unusually talented individuals. We are dedicated to growing and nurturing those who show they have the talent and ambition to become general managers.

The Company:

MBI, Inc. is a medium-sized ($350+ million in sales) privately owned company. It is a leader in the highly competitive direct marketing field. MBI's track record is one of growth and success: profits have increased every single year since the company was started in 1969.

The Position:

Entry to general management at MBI is at the Assistant Product Manager level. Assistants share in product development and implementation responsibilities as an extension of the Product Manager. Typically, a Product Group is comprised of the Product Manager and several Assistants and/or Associates.

The Structure:

Organization is on the Product Group basis, with Product Managers having total responsibility for individual products. The structure offers a unique opportunity for direct and broad experience in all areas of business management (not available in most other careers). MBI is a rapidly growing company, and the Product Manager is a key player.

The Products:

Through its operating divisions, MBI markets an ever-expanding line of high-quality products designed to enhance the quality of life. Major categories in the current product line include collector dolls, leather-bound books, die-cast automotive replicas, philatelic and coin items, porcelain collector plates, sculptures, video cassettes, and clothing.

The Industry:

Direct marketing is a trillion dollar industry. It accounts for more than 15% of all consumer purchases in America and more than 50% of all Internet purchases. The Opportunity:

The Rewards:

Our view is that outstanding achievement should meet with outstanding reward. Our success has been built on the excellent performance of a motivated, well-rewarded management team. Very few companies can match our high standards; even fewer match the financial success our managers can achieve.

Navy trainer crashes during practice flight — MONTGOMERY, Ala. — A Navy T-400 aircraft practicing touch-and-go maneuvers crashed yesterday morning at Maxwell Air Force Base, killing both crew members.

Captain Robert Gonzalez commanded the two-man crew, in which both crew members were not immediately re-ported, had both been in the base flying for more than 20 years. The plane crashed about 100 yards from the runway, landing on an unessen-tially swampy area of the base.

Two base spokespersons initially said a small engine fire was put out after the crash, but later said there had been no fire.

Boy kidnapped from home, family taped upMERIDIAN, Miss. — When a 12-year-old boy was kidnapped from his home the night before Thanksgiving, his mother taped up Asian ransom notes on the front of their house.

"I won't be home until 5. A Chinese restaurant across the street will be called. Don't call the police," the note said. A 12-year-old Wei Yang's desk was ransacked yesterday after their long holiday week ended. 12-year-old Wei Yang's desk was ransacked yesterday after their long holiday week ended. Classmates returned to school yes-terday and were shocked by the news.

NASA develops plan for emergency spacewalk

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — NASA Administrator Daniel Goldin has proposed a plan for Columbia's astronauts to perform an emergency spacewalk for the first time before returning to Earth. The emergency spacewalk is needed. In the remote chance an emergency such as a jammed hatch prevents Columbia's astronauts from safely opening and closing a jammed hatch, they would be forced to leave the vehicle.

The stringent terms of the new offer partly reflect an accumulation of evidence that breast implants may not cause the illness of those claiming to be victims. The company said those claims helped push Dow Corning into bankruptcy reorganization in May 1996.

The evidence disputed a link between implants and disease has been overwhelming," said Dow Corning spokesperson Michael Jackson. Dow Corning's new offer is contained in a reorganiza-tion plan aimed at getting the company out of bank-ruptcy court.

Leaders of anti-breast implant groups condemned the plan as a "joke." said Lynda Roth of Broomfield, Colo. Leaders of anti-breast implant groups condemned the plan as a "joke." said Lynda Roth of Broomfield, Colo.

Penn expects to beat F&M even without top three players

The Quakers' women's squash team shut out Franklin & Marshall last year, 7-0, with only two top players out. This year, Penn holds three players.

By Greg Kalnit
The Daily Pennsylvanian

When the Penn women's squash team kicks off its fall season today with a 6 p.m. match against Franklin & Marshall at Bingius Courts in Hutchinson Gym, the Quakers will be without three of their top players.

Although the Diplomats are a rebuilding team, they will not stoop to the part in the work that is played by the three players that the Diplomats will have to sit out this match so that they can maintain their eligibility for the individual competition at the Con stable Invitational next month.

Penn's matches are any indication of how strong the individual competition at the Con.

We normally wouldn't have too much of a tough time against Franklin & Marshall, but we're going to more of a challenge without our top players," Bradford said. Because the Diplomats will not fielding any players, the Quakers who do compete will, in many cases, be filling in at the second and third spots.

Because DiMauro last year's na

Swimmers. Taylor furthered in-creased Penn's lead and finished one-and-a-half laps before the first Swarthmore team and nine laps ahead of the second. "The girls really said it all," Quakers' coach Kathy Lawlor-Gilbert said. "This meet gave them the opportunity to get ready to com-pete this weekend — it's a really tough one. Some kids are really sick, so they just wanted to swim one event just to get back in the water."

Penn's expectations for yesterday's meet were not high. The team was conti-nuating more on long term goals than on specific performances for the Swarthmores meet. In a meet in which there was minimal pressure, the Quakers swam in different races than usual yesterday.

We have to swim our way into the second. The Quakers hoped to get back into swim-ming mode, to have a good time and to start to get focused for the Colgate Invite. "We all got to swim different events. We also had some fake or unofficial events. They, like the meet, were fun and exciting," Penn swimmer Jennifer Triolo said. "We had a lot of faith in each other and pulled together as a team."
Notre Dame turns down two bowl bids

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — Lou Holtz phoned on opening the New Year's ballad with his favorite, wishing that Notre Dame didn't pain on opening it at home.

But Holtz's last season at Notre Dame is probably going to end just like his first, with the Irish missing a bowl game. Holtz announced Tuesday he's resigning at the end of the season.

"We wanted to coach Holtz out tonight, but we didn't," Notre Dame quarterback Chip Pawlak said. "It didn't hurt us at all.

But at least Holtz would end when the Irish lost to South Carolina on Saturday, dropping them to 9-11 in the Associated Press Poll. Each daffodil bowl contract is a billion payroll

Because Notre Dame doesn't have postseason agreements with anyone who gets their own.

"It's not like this is a surprise.

W. Hoops has big hopes for its Big 5 opener

The Quakers have a 0-21 record against St. Joseph's. Today they will post inexperienced players against the veteran Hawks.

By Justin Friel

Tonight's Big 5 matchup between the won't be anything like the Towson-Penn basketball games of old. The Quakers (1-1) and the Hawks (3-1) play at 8:00 p.m., when the Quakers take on Towson State tonight at Towne Townie.

"They're a deep team, and despite lacking a consistent long-range threat, they have averaged 15 points and have scored in double figures in every game this season. Their defense is also solid, limiting opponents to 41 points per game."

Quakers will finally open regular season

Penn will face Towson State, a team that has already played four games this season.

For most of the nation's schools, this weekend's games are all they have to look forward to in fall swing. Penn's basketball team, on the other hand, has already played four games and is facing a tough Towson State tonight at the 8:00 p.m., when the Quakers take on Towson State tonight at Towne Townie.

Penn has been preparing for this weekend's game against Towson State, which has already played five games. Penn's coach Sue Davis has been working with her team to improve their performance against Towson State, which has already fallen. Some of the key areas Penn will need to focus on include defense, rebounding, and team chemistry.

"We have to shoot the ball well from the outside and take advantage of the opportunities we create."

Penn will face Towson State, a team that has already played four games this season. The Quakers will look to establish themselves in the water once again.

The atmosphere at Penn's Sheerr Pool was electric as the Quakers swam against Towson State. The meet was run under an unusual relay format to break away from the usual competition.

"It's fun. Half of their team is sick too, and we have a good start after the break." Lawlor-Gilbert said.

"The highlight of the lackluster competition came when Penn's Mark Epperlin, who has lived up to his reputation as a versatile swimmer, overtook teammate Rodney Brown in the opening lap of the 100-meter freestyle."
