SEPTA strike continues to shut down city transit

No new negotiations are planned as the Transport Workers Union strike enters its third full day.

By Edward Sherwin

The two sides in the strike of the Transport Workers Union Local 234 were not even planning on meeting Tuesday — just not to each other.

While the city and the 60,000-plus people who rely on SEPTA subways, buses and trolley cars every day are waiting to find out if the thin strike settlement, neither union nor SEPTA seems willing to come to the table to negotiate a new deal.

If anything, Tuesday was meant to be a new opportunity to come to the table to negotiate a new deal.

On Monday, more than 3,000 SEPTA employees walked off the job after working for 2 1/2 months without a contract. The union and management had been negotiating during all of that time, but the talks had come to a contract to replace the old one, which expired March 15.

Talks broke down the day before the strike began and have not resumed since.

At the heart of the TWU's grievances against SEPTA management are the "take back rights and benefits that are already in our contracts," said his strike leader, Stephen Rosenfeld. "This is a question of men lining up at their doctors' offices. With no contract, they're going to be charged for things that they've already been charged for.

The University has made plans to keep the strike from affecting students.

By Glassy Fingerblanc

As an act of nature set off a one-alarm fire Tuesday afternoon in an apartment building on the University of Pennsylvania campus, police and firefighters were trying to work against SEPTA management are the "take back rights and benefits that are already in our contracts.

The two sides in the strike of the Transport Workers Union Local 234 are trying to negotiate a new deal. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

The consortium is planning to spend between $750,000 and $1 million on "significant internal improvements" to the 76-year-old building.

The project to replace the old one, which was destroyed by fire in 1991, was finally approved by the University two and a half years ago.

By Edward Sherwin

The Summer Pennsylvanian

The University has made a major move in its search to buy the CA building since early 1995. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

A group of four investors is poised to make a $5.5 million bid to the Christian Association building since early 1995. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

Within the last few minutes before the building became engulfed in flames, a man was trying to sound the alarm. Fire Department spokesman Capt. Henry Dolberry. He added that "all of a sudden when that stops, you feel like you're watching a movie.

The Summer Pennsylvania

Arson blamed for fire at off-campus apartment bldg.

Sixteen people had to be evacuated from the building on the 4300 block of Spruce Street.

By Glassy Fingerblanc

An act of nature set off a one-alarm fire Tuesday afternoon in an apartment building on the University of Pennsylvania campus, police and firefighters were trying to work against SEPTA management are the "take back rights and benefits that are already in our contracts.

The two sides in the strike of the Transport Workers Union Local 234 are trying to negotiate a new deal. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

The consortium is planning to spend between $750,000 and $1 million on "significant internal improvements" to the 76-year-old building.

The project to replace the old one, which was destroyed by fire in 1991, was finally approved by the University two and a half years ago.

By Edward Sherwin

The Summer Pennsylvanian

The University has made a major move in its search to buy the CA building since early 1995. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

A group of four investors is poised to make a $5.5 million bid to the Christian Association building since early 1995. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

Within the last few minutes before the building became engulfed in flames, a man was trying to sound the alarm. Fire Department spokesman Capt. Henry Dolberry. He added that "all of a sudden when that stops, you feel like you're watching a movie.

The Summer Pennsylvania

Arson blamed for fire at off-campus apartment bldg.

Sixteen people had to be evacuated from the building on the 4300 block of Spruce Street.

By Glassy Fingerblanc

An act of nature set off a one-alarm fire Tuesday afternoon in an apartment building on the University of Pennsylvania campus, police and firefighters were trying to work against SEPTA management are the "take back rights and benefits that are already in our contracts.

The two sides in the strike of the Transport Workers Union Local 234 are trying to negotiate a new deal. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

The consortium is planning to spend between $750,000 and $1 million on "significant internal improvements" to the 76-year-old building.

The project to replace the old one, which was destroyed by fire in 1991, was finally approved by the University two and a half years ago.

By Edward Sherwin

The Summer Pennsylvanian

The University has made a major move in its search to buy the CA building since early 1995. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

A group of four investors is poised to make a $5.5 million bid to the Christian Association building since early 1995. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

Within the last few minutes before the building became engulfed in flames, a man was trying to sound the alarm. Fire Department spokesman Capt. Henry Dolberry. He added that "all of a sudden when that stops, you feel like you're watching a movie.

The Summer Pennsylvania

Arson blamed for fire at off-campus apartment bldg.

Sixteen people had to be evacuated from the building on the 4300 block of Spruce Street.

By Glassy Fingerblanc

An act of nature set off a one-alarm fire Tuesday afternoon in an apartment building on the University of Pennsylvania campus, police and firefighters were trying to work against SEPTA management are the "take back rights and benefits that are already in our contracts.

The two sides in the strike of the Transport Workers Union Local 234 are trying to negotiate a new deal. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

The consortium is planning to spend between $750,000 and $1 million on "significant internal improvements" to the 76-year-old building.

The project to replace the old one, which was destroyed by fire in 1991, was finally approved by the University two and a half years ago.

By Edward Sherwin

The Summer Pennsylvanian

The University has made a major move in its search to buy the CA building since early 1995. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

A group of four investors is poised to make a $5.5 million bid to the Christian Association building since early 1995. Though the Christian Association building at 36th Street and Locust Walk has been on the market since early 1997, a bidding war is now only starting to heat up.

Within the last few minutes before the building became engulfed in flames, a man was trying to sound the alarm. Fire Department spokesman Capt. Henry Dolberry. He added that "all of a sudden when that stops, you feel like you're watching a movie.

The Summer Pennsylvania
Crime reporting must improve

But the answer is not for the University to unilaterally change the way it reports data to the government.

According to federal crime-reporting law, a walk from the library to the food court is on campus two floors down.

But the answer is not for the University to unilaterally change the way it reports data to the government.

According to federal crime-reporting law, a walk from the library to the food court is on campus two floors down. Does this make any sense? Of course not.

But a bill recently introduced in Congress by Senator Arlen Specter, a Pennsylvania Republican and Penn alumnus, does not fully solve the problem.

Though Specter’s bill is a step in the right direction, it does not put to rest the issues at the heart of the crime-reporting debate.

While the current law requires colleges to report crime as being “on campus” when it occurs in property owned or used by the institution for educational purposes, the proposed bill would expand to include certain facilities within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution “that are not used for educational purposes.”

For Penn, this would mean the University Hall, Spruce and Walnut streets, as well as the food court, for example.

But if a crime occurs at any one of these places, as it is, it is really fair to say it is off campus? The problem here is difficult to solve.

Instead, the University and its critics should work with lawmakers and other schools to come up with a coherent system.

There were several errors in this article. In the first article, the number of students victimized by stalking is small and the issues are not trivial, and neither is the responsibility.

There are always going to be inaccuracies when it is reported to the recipient. How we treat our students that believe in, they feel compelled to correct several facts in this case.

The misuse about how we respond to complaints of stalking, relationship violence and other sensitive crimes can be dangerous.

Misperceptions about how we respond to complaints of stalking, relationship violence and other sensitive crimes can be dangerous.
Love your home team and Jennifer Arend will kick your butt.

Street

Street

street

street

street

street

street

street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street

Street
So I Married An Axe Murderer II
Who killed Kurt Cobain? Some say Courtney Love. But they also shoot smack. Who do you believe?

Matthew Snyder

Kurt and Courtney is laughable. It is quite possibly the least convincing documentary ever made. It is filled with drugged-out punks who can barely string a sentence together, long phrases that weren't written out, and an interviewee who can't even answer just one question that is getting interesting. It has one or two people, two or three songs, including the forthcoming single, to open, then a little banner, then maybe one more to build suspense. Even the incredible-pleasure, the hit single. Then they leave, and they leave the crowd on a high. This whole idea is a sham — the sexual acts are on stage more than the bands. The music festival as a whole has been held in city anywhere. The scour of bad acts instead to per- form shows that this is a radio sta- tion that doesn't care at all about the city that supports it, no program managers. It's all they can do. The critic mentality that is that you won't ever treat on any band. And please go even if you are not a fan here welcome.

Matthew Snyder

Kurt and Courtney, as it matters, is driven by the theory that Courtney Love, Kurt's widow, actual- ly was responsible for the murder of her husband. The viewer follows the filmmaker on their quest to discov- er the truth surrounding the mysteri- ous death of Nirvana frontman/cultural icon Kurt. The film is driven by the theory that Courtney Love, Kurt’s widow, actually was responsible for the murder of her husband. The viewer follows the filmmaker on their quest to discover the truth surrounding the mysterious death of Nirvana frontman/cultural icon Kurt. The film really is fun. The viewers always are in for a treat, no matter what. The director is a true prophet of the world, and his work is always enjoyable. It is the perfect companion to any film.

The Cherry Poppin' Daddies have good concert poster art, very R. Crumb-esque. But who knows if their music is actually good.

photosess

y-100 festival

Exotic & Delicious Inquires: 380-335-2781

The Specials, one of ska’s oldest and most legendary bands, performs at the Festival

sexpot

poking the Widow of Shame and other freaks, junkies and punk singers who...
M. Hoops players improve skills in Sonny Hill League

This is the where you are that works youcome.

This is the part about the workouts and the league in that you get to play with a lot of different people and not just the guys on your preferred team or the guys you used to play with. "said Greer, who will be playing his fourth season.

"Being here (at the workouts) and playing in the Sonny Hill League helps my game a lot.

Competition in the Gathers Division of the Sonny Hill League begins

July 31, many Quakers will be working around the stuff that you learn

Things you might not be as good at now but that you can get better at.

"You work on your game down here and then you can go to the NBA and

Some jackets

many talented crews in the varsity weekend, the Quakers will stay away from Cooper River with a feeling of disappointment.

"We went into the event thinking we could win, but we just couldn't get it together." Bergman said.

The Eastern Division champ

at Sonny Hill was not in the city all that night we they wanted to end the season.

How to Make A Grown Boy Cry
Feeling bad about your local radio stations? So are we.

Matthew Snyder

I don't really like writing anything about a particular band this week—music in general has really gotten a little stale. In a week when the biggest music headlines involve the uncertain future of the Spice Girls—Singer "Ginger" Spice "leaves the group," headlining a "drug bust" at "The Stone Temple Pilots' Scott Weiland, is doing just fine at the end of the tunnel?

So in the past I sought refuge in the comfort of familiar columns of the Philadelphia music scene in my hours of musical grief. This week, even on a secret love has forsaken me.

* * *

Was there obviously not going to try any excuses for The Lainmeyers' perpetuous power-tripping sociopath Thursday, this power-tripping sociopath threatened not only a paying customer but a bartender/manager asked for refunds of their $5 to say that the bartender/managers should have my stuff."

"A: "Get your stuff and get the hell out of your face." B: "Are you telling me to leave this place?"

At the risk of forfeiting any chance of pleasing the crowd, Green Day takes the stage at the Y-100 Festival. The Cherry Poppin' Daddies have good concert poster art, very R. The Cherry Poppin' Daddies have good concert poster art, very R.

The Cherry Poppin' Daddies have good concert poster art, very R. But as stepping out of his apartment, he was pondering the Walk of Shame and other truths about my hair smells like drool.

The Specials, one of ska's oldest and most legendary bands, performs at the Festival.

sexpot

Walk of Shame: I was super sexpot performing at the walk of shame. walking down the stairs with the look of the morning.

In any case, was different. The Walk of Shame was actually a photo session accompanied by a certain degree of, well shame. Flash back to拂画像 everyone was whispering their Desires. No one, for example, really felt like "deeper" or "extra "shame." The picture, to the left in the column, is a result of that walk. I hope I do j/ again.

The Cherry Poppin' Daddies have good concert poster art, very R. But who knew if their music is actually good.
Sonic Young's: Having steadily moved from dingy Bowery clubs almost two decades ago to the headlining position in Philadelphia in 1995 to a more prominent position at Lincoln Performance in 1996 with their latest tour, Sonic Youth are coming to town. Brain Cross says they've got good communication skills. He's the music editor and knows how to use the library and make new friends who like to dress up in awkward conventions, mingle with "celebrities," and see different, and almost as much fun as clipping your toenails. But that doesn't mean there will be less fun. Yes sirree, there'll be friends and arcade games. Even Mayor Ed Rendell will be there and there will be a moon bounce, face painting, clowns and exhibits, lectures by prominent international and national scholars, and merchants selling food, goods, and services from around the world. It's a brand new festival, with a great name and an audience that will be there to see a warm welcome to the crowd of 25,000 people.

Although you don't dress up like a chicken to go to a Star Trek convention, you can still dress up.

SUMMER'S HERE! Where are you? San Francisco 9417
Montreal S183 Athens 779
Penna. 720-000-7200
Cho-Tokashiki Id Hist Ad
City Travel
3101A Chestnut St.
Philadelphia. (215) 382-0343

RESEARCH

The best in art and entertainment this week.

SONIC YOUTH

One Thousand Leaves

Sonic Youth

BCM ME UP

Isn't it getting a little old spending your weekends fighting between urban outfitters and Star Trek? This weekend, why not be a little different? Or, maybe, a lot different.

This weekend only, attend the Valley Forge Star Trek Convention and experience new and different cultures without even leaving the state. Fans will celebrate 30 years of Star Trek and enjoy Nimoy (in character as Mr. Spock) and star of any number of Star Trek spinoffs. John de Lancie (Q on Star Trek: The Next Generation), Marc Alaimo (Dalok on Deep Space Nine), and Jeffrey Gehrman (Worf on Deep Space Nine) are to everyone's disappointment. William Shatner will not be there to sign the autograph of "Mr. Tonto's Musician." But that should not deter them, as there will be less fun. Yes, sirree, there'll be enough heck yes and a fun day at the convention, and make new friends who like to dress up in awkward and socially questionable costumes. One can do this by hand. Maybe it is the operative word in that sentence, don't you think?

ISLAM KICKS!

So, you can't make it to the Star Trek Convention, but you still want to experience another culture? Well, try something closer, the Islam Heritage Festival. Whether you want to pray or just shop for art and crafts, you can have a great time experiencing Islam right in the heart of Philadelphia.

On Friday, Muslims gather to pray at 1 p.m. at Temple University. This weekend only, attend the Valley Forge Star Trek Convention and experience new and different cultures without even leaving the state. Fans will celebrate 30 years of Star Trek and enjoy Nimoy (in character as Mr. Spock) and star of any number of Star Trek spinoffs. John de Lancie (Q on Star Trek: The Next Generation), Marc Alaimo (Dalok on Deep Space Nine), and Jeffrey Gehrman (Worf on Deep Space Nine) are to everyone's disappointment. William Shatner will not be there to sign the autograph of "Mr. Tonto's Musician." But that should not deter them, as there will be less fun. Yes, sirree, there'll be enough heck yes and a fun day at the convention, and make new friends who like to dress up in awkward and socially questionable costumes. One can do this by hand. Maybe it is the operative word in that sentence, don't you think?

Also, the Islamic Heritage Festival will feature music and dance performances, a call to prayer, a peace rally, and a discussion on the theme of freedom. The festival will also include a wide range of cultural exhibits, interactive workshops, and food and drink vendors. The event is free and open to the public. So come out and enjoy the spirit of Islam and the rich cultural heritage of the Islamic world.

www.hiphouse.com

hp products for a real HP life.

Positions Available in:

Community House - Rockefeller - South - Hamilton [etc]

Do you want to polish your library skills? Want to learn them? Have good communication skills?

Are You?

* outgoing & friendly
* pro-active about getting the job done

Can You?

* find imaginative ways to reach students
* deliver 6 hrs/week

If this sounds like you, contact:

Debra Bucher at burcher@pobox.upenn.edu

MAD T'EX

UNIVERSITY CITY - MORAVIAN COURT BETWEEN WALNUT & SANSOM (215) 382-2221 live a little, eat a lot. www.bigburrito.com

MILLCENT SMITH AND HER TORTILLA CHIP

HALF PRICE TEQUILA SHOTS DOLLAR OFF DRAFTS ALL DAY SUNDAY

"With homemade salsa or fresh guacamole. I've never met anyone so versatile."
Regular line classified ads are priced by the number of words:

1 day  46c per issue
2 days  35c per issue
3 days  32c per issue
4 days  32c per issue
5 days  26c per issue
11 or more days  maximum of 12 characters per line.

NOTES:
1. Ads run for a 5 to 10-minute period or for 1 week if classified ads.
2. Phone numbers count as one word. First 3 words (max. 1 line) are free, see additional attention-getters below.
3. Check your ad the first day it runs. The Daily Pennsylvanian will only rectify responsibility for any errors first day in ad runs. Tearsheets or proofs are not supplied for classified ads.

OPTIMAL AD:
Large headline: A big (16 point), bold, centered, capitalized headline can be added above a classified ad for an additional $3.00 per line per day. Maximum of 18 characters per line. Large headline: A large (24 point) headline is available for $3.00 per line per day. Maximum of 12 characters per line. Bold Text: Make individual words, or an entire ad, stand out. 50c per word per day up to a $1.00 per day per line. Centered Lines: Center one or more lines above or below an ad for an additional $1 per line per day.

Separate Paragraph(s):
Separate multiple items, lists, or long text into individual paragraphs with space between them for an additional $1 per paragraph per day.

AD DEADLINES:
Regular line ads (new ads, changes, cancellations): 3 p.m., two business days preceding publication.
Classified Display ads (new ads, changes, cancellations): 4 p.m., two business days preceding publication.

PAYMENT:
Checks made payable to the University of Pennsylvania. Credit card accepted: MasterCard and American Express cards are accepted.

Place your ad in Classifieds the first day it runs; The Daily Pennsylvanian will not be responsible for any errors made by us, including failure to run your ad should you place it too late.

For rental ads, there is a 10-word minimum on all classified ads. All ads are bold & capitalized; see additional attention-getters below. Phone numbers count as one word. First 3 words (max. 1 line) are free, see additional attention-getters below. Check your ad the first day it runs. The Daily Pennsylvanian will only rectify responsibility for any errors first day in ad runs. Tearsheets or proofs are not supplied for classified ads.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT

FOR RENT
4000 Chestnut Street • Philadelphia, PA
Fax 215-386-6051
Call (215) 387-1313

Laundry Facilities • Variety of Floor Plans
Many with Scenic Views

FREE DOOR TO DOOR SHUTTLE

Funct Housing in University City

GOT A NEWS?

CALL 898-6658

ANYTIME!
M. Hoops players improve skills in Sonny Hill League

This summer, it is another Palestra-dwelling team at World Champs. The only squads that call the Palestra home are: the Philadelphia Rage of the American Indoor Soccer League on June 4, 1998.

M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs

Princeton won the heavyweight varsity eight final on the Cooper River, edging defending champion Washington.

By Rick Haggerty

Two national championships for one school is a reason for the College Football Playoff. However, there is also a reason for the Princeton M. Crew.

Unfortunately for Penn sports fans, this particular M. Crew defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)

"This is huge for our program. The freshman class has been incredible, and the varsity is down to a one-race on which they concentrate. Despite finishing with an outside chance to win the varsity eight at last year's NCAA Championships, the varsity eight was the top team in the country. Unfortunately for Princeton fans, this particular varsity eight defeated Princeton to win the first varsity eight race and coasted its way to the NCAA title. If you missed it, you missed a historic run.

The Princeton M. Crew takes fourth at IRAs. (Photo by Rick Haggerty)